Douglas

A family of Douglas was living in the Cove neighborhood as early as 1751, two of which were James and George, probably brothers. They were among the first members of the Cove Presbyterian Church. George died in 1785.

Three brothers named Douglas resided in the north part of the county in 1761, Charles, Thomas and John. Their farms were situated on the Barboursville Road near the Orange line. Charles married as daughter of Robert and Mourning Adams, and died in 1823. His children were Robert and Charles, to whom he gave lands he owned in Kentucky, and who removed to that State, Ann, the wife of Joseph Timberlake, Judith, the wife of John Dickerson, and Sarah. Thomas died in 1830, leaving four children, James, Achilles, Nancy and John. Achilles was appointed a magistrate in 1796, and acted a prominent part in the affairs of the county. He served as Sheriff in 1823. He married Nancy, daughter of Jason Bowcock, and died in 1844. His home the latter part of his life was on the north fork of Priddy's Creek, near the present station of Burnley'S John Douglas Jr., married Mildred Bowcock, a sister of Achilles's wife.

Death: 19 Aug 1853 in Tyler, Smith, Texas, USA
Person Notes: They removed in 1837 to Talladega Alabama with other Cowsars and Douglasses. He was converted to Methodism in the Great Revival and in 1843 in Alabama, he was licensed as a local Methodist preacher by the fourth Quarterly Conference and named among the leading men in the Talladega Circuit during years 1833-1845. He arrived in Tyler, Texas by January of 1848 where he engaged in the real estate sale of newly created town lots of Tyler. He also operated the first livery stable, a hotel, several stage lines and carried the US Mail. He engaged his two older sons, James P and John B in these concerns.

Douglas and his family were among the charter members of the present Marvin Methodist Church. It originally operated under the name of Methodist Episcopal Church South. All-Faith services were held at first in a log cabin on the town square. Later this was moved to Adam's Blacksmith Shop, south of the square. The church was organized by Rev. Douglas and Samuel Box.

Rev. Douglas died in 1853, only five years after arriving in Tyler, but he left his mark on the town.
